

February 2007

Dear customers and colleagues,

As Atom Lighting, Inc. embarks on nearly six years of exceptional service to the industry of landscape lighting, we reflect on the people who have greatly contributed to our success. Thank you for your continued support of our products and the opportunity for collaboration in the flourishing trade of landscape lighting!

We value the loyal relationships we continue to build with our customers, vendors and employees, and appreciate the continued confidence they place in us. We remain committed to providing the best service to every customer as we partner with those in all aspects of the trade, both domestically and internationally.

We are passionate about serving our customers, and their needs are the driving force behind every decision. Our comprehensive and user-accessible website provides the necessary tools to significantly reduce the time spent researching our product line and pricing, creating a fulfilling purchase experience for our customers and helping to promote sales.

We also thank the vendors and investors who have contributed to our productivity and accomplishments in 2006. We look forward to continued years of success and advancement in this exciting field of landscape design.

Our entire team at Atom Lighting looks forward to serving you and contributing to your productivity in 2007!

Kind regards,

Jonathan Hille
President & CEO
Atom Lighting, Inc.
