

architectural fixtures

Light fixtures that are attached to existing structures can be a sophisticated complement to your lighting design. Architectural lights can be positioned to emphasize the vertical lines of a column or to draw attention to particular aspects of a building, and specially designed fixtures can add character and coordinate with the flavor of your project décor. Even at their simplest, architectural lights will cast an inviting glow over your outdoor living spaces.

bronze powder coat

0410

black matte powder coat

0412

white powder coat

0414

copper matte

0415

stainless steel matte

0416

brass matte

0417

bronze matte

0418