

below grade fixtures

When a light fixture is placed below the earth's surface, light seems to emerge from thin air, flowing seamlessly upward to illuminate your favorite structure or landscaping feature. Atom Lighting's below grade fixtures create this sophisticated effect, offering you the flexibility of a directional light with the subtlety of a hidden light source. With their sturdy protective housing, below grade lights can be safely installed in grass, cement, or desert landscaping without disrupting ordinary use or maintenance.

fission®

patent number: US D461,922S | US 6,860,624

copper matte

stainless steel matte

brass matte

bronze matte

0215

0216

0217

0218

positron®

patent pending

copper matte

stainless steel matte

brass matte

bronze matte

0245

0246

0247

0248

quantum™

patent pending

copper matte

stainless steel matte

brass matte

bronze matte

0235

0236

0237

0238

other views

fission

quantum | positron

quantum

positron